THE GENERAL COUNSEL OF THE TREASURY

WASHINGTON

January 23, 1964

Dear Mr. Rankin:

I have now received and send you herewith two communications from the Bureau of Customs in Laredo, Texas, dated January 8 and 13, 1964. The latter one contains such information as has become available to Customs concerning Oswald's entry into Mexico and his subsequent reentry into the United States, while the other communication discusses what records are and are not kept in connection with such border crossings.

Sincerely,

G. d'Andelot Belin
General Counsel

J. Lee Rankin, Esquire
General Counsel, President's Commission
on the Assassination of President Kennedy
